ORDER

On October 30, 2018, Magistrate Judge Vascura issued a report and recommendation ("R&R") regarding the initial screen of Plaintiff's Complaints pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915 (e)(2). ECF No. 4. Magistrate Judge Vascura recommended that the Court remand each of the above-captioned actions to the Perry County Court of Common Pleas, Juvenile Division pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(h)(3) for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction. Id. at 3.

Magistrate Judge Vascura notified the parties of their right to file objections to the R&R pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Id. at 5. She also specifically advised the parties that the failure to object to the R&R within fourteen days would result in a waiver of both the right to de novo review by the District Judge and the right to appeal the decision of the District Court adopting the R&R. Id. at 5.

The deadline for filing such objections has passed, and no objections were filed. Having received no objections, the R&R is ADOPTED, and each of the above-captioned actions is REMANDED to the Perry County Court of Common Pleas, Juvenile Division.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

MICHAEL H. WATSON, JUDGE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
